

Avid, skilled readers.

Yesterday, Moston Fields came alive with stories as we celebrated World Book Day! Our pupils arrived dressed as their favourite book characters – from superheroes and magical creatures to beloved storybook friends.

Throughout the day, children took part in special reading activities, shared their favourite books with classmates, and explored new stories together. The creativity and enthusiasm on display was wonderful to see, and it was clear how much our pupils love reading.

World Book Day is just one part of our ongoing commitment to developing avid, skilled readers at Moston Fields. We hope the excitement from yesterday continues at home – why not ask your child: "What was your favourite part of the book you read on World Book Day?" or "What new book would you like to read next?"

Reading together regularly, even for just 10 minutes a day, helps build the reading skills and love of books that will support your child throughout their learning journey. Thank you to all our families for supporting this special day and for helping us nurture confident, enthusiastic readers.

Important Notes & Reminders

Ramadan

We would like to extend our warm wishes to all families in our school community who are currently observing Ramadan – we hope this is a peaceful and blessed time for you and your loved ones.

Spring Term Quality Assurance Visit

Highlights from our most recent QA visit includes:

- Children in the Early Years behave well and follow clear routines and expectations in their learning
- Children in Lower School access the Read Write Inc Phonics programme well. The quality of their written work is improving
- Children in Upper School read increasingly challenging texts and are well supported with their understanding of vocabulary

Attendance & Punctuality

Excellent school attendance remains a priority and legal requirement for all children and families. Every minute of every day matters and research shows that pupils with excellent attendance go on to have excellent outcomes later in life.

Class attendance data is currently as follows:

Registration Form	Prev %	Curr %	Improved
Willows	76.7%	82.1%	👍
Nursery Maple	96.4%	97.2%	👍
